VIRGINIA:
In The Circuit Court For The County Of Appomattox
PEARL S. O'BRIEN, Complainant,
V.
HALLIE SCRUGGS, JR., et al., Defendants
ORDER OF PUBLICATION
The object of this suit is to affect a Partition amongst the owners by sale or otherwise of the real property in Appomattox County, containing 27.82 Acres, more or less, in the Clover Hill District of Appomattox County, Virginia, of which Biddy Scruggs and Albert Scruggs died seized and possessed and which is more fully described in the Bill of Complaint. Plaintiff request an Order directing service of the Bill of Complaint in the above entitled action on all unknown defendants described hereinafter by publication thereof in a newspaper of general circulation most likely to give notice to said defendant and on the Affidavits of Charles M. L. Mangum, Attorney for Plaintiff.

It appearing to the Court from said Affidavit and evidence adduced from the Complaint filed herein that a good cause of action exist in favor of plaintiff against each and all said unknown defendants and that each and all of said unknown defendants are necessary and proper parties to this action; and

It further appearing that Margaret C. Hancock or her heirs are the objects of an interest in the said properties; and that such persons and their addresses are unknown, despite diligence having been used to determine the same; and

It further appearing that there are or may be other persons interested in the subject property to be divided whose names are unknown and making them parties defendant by the general description of "Parties Unknown" and an Affidavit having been made and filed that they are unknown and being the heirs, devisees, and successors in title to Margaret C. Hancock, among who may be infants, persons non compos, persons who are members of the armed forces and other persons not juris.

It is ORDERED that the said persons made defendants by the general description of "Parties Unknown" do appear on or before September 15, 1980, to protect their interests in this suit.

And, it is further ORDERED that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Times-Virginian a Newspaper published in the County of Appomattox, that a copy be posted at the front door of the Courthouse of this County on or about the 22nd day of July, 1980.

Bennett family is recognized

The James Bennett family of Knoll Crest Farm, Red House, Va., was featured in the July issue of a leading national livestock magazine.

The Polled Hereford World is the official publication of the American Polled Hereford Association and the feature article recognizes the Bennetts' contributions to the breed.

James Bennett has long been recognized as a leader in performance testing beef cattle and as an innovator in many other agricultural practices. With some 500 head of registered Polled Hereford cattle, Bennett has worked to produce performance-tested bulls for commercial producers. Knoll Crest bulls have continually led the way in central performance tests and Bennett has been recognized with various beef production awards.

The entire Bennett family - James, his wife Barbara, daughter Beth, 20, and sons Paul, 18, Jim, 17, Brian, 14, and Jonathan, 7-have all been active in the family operation.
